Dear Mr. Schauss:

I have your letter of 20 March and want to let you know that the 4 May luncheon date is acceptable with me. It will be a great pleasure to participate in your program and I am looking forward with much interest to this occasion.

Much as I would like to take a tour of your city, including Niagara Falls, I will have to return to Washington after the luncheon and therefore must decline your kind offer.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
